FOREWORD

As we hesitantly entered E.B.HS., we felt within ourselves the door to childhood close behind us. This was now a thing of the past. It became a door locked, never again to be reopened.

Now as we think back, we know that new doors have opened before to display new and exciting things. During our four years at East Bridgewater High School, we have known much happiness. We have felt the joy of winning and the agony of defeat. This school is where we have been prepared for what we are to behold when we leave our little world of basketball games and mid-years. That unknown world outside is our world, no matter what it has in store for us.

To achieve success, we must know which door will be the most promising for us, and which path will lead us to success. We know our teachers cannot predict this for us, but we know that they have done their best to pass on to us their experiences. They have told us where they went off in the wrong direction in hopes that we shall not err in the same manner.

For this and much more, the Class of '68 is very grateful. We shall never forget all that E.B.H.S. and the faculty have done for us. And in our possession the key to these days shall remain. With it, from time to time, we may unlock our precious memories and travel once again . . . "down the fair chambered corridor of years, and hear the quiet shutting, one by one, of doors."

DEDICATION

These few pages depict a man vigorous in achievement and admired for his reliability. His youthful ambition symbolizes not only his own character but also the virtues hoped to be imitated by our class later in life. By aiding our cause and understanding us, he helped accomplish what we, alone, would fail to do. The thoughtfulness given to us by him in our many hours of need strengthened our determination to achieve the best.

His unending devotion to us when it was most needed will not go unrewarded. Therefore, we cannot help but show our gratitude by dedicating our "Class of '68" Torch to Charles Hunt.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

I congratulate the class of 1968. You have demonstrated beyond the shadow of any doubt that you really are outstanding people. You helped establish guidelines and school policies within the boundaries established this year by State and School authorities. Partaking of democratic action and then actively participating within the framework you yourselves helped formulate lends further proof to my solemn conviction that you, our citizens of the world, because of your sincere interest and dedication to your fellow man, have left this school a better place than it was before you came here. Each of you represents a singular positive contribution to the welfare of all. Whatever your course on the planet Earth, please endeavor to exemplify these aforementioned actions. The world is yours—make it a better place because of your presence on it. And thank you for re-affirming my faith in you, young America.

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

As you approach your commencement, there is excitement in finally reaching this milestone (in your life.) Now it is time to begin another adventure which you have in your own power to make the most meaningful of your lives.

You will have opportunities for growth and achievement which go beyond your present expectations.

Do not assume that it is too late to make fundamental changes in the level of your intellectual achievement or in your personal traits or in your sense of values or in your commitment to ideals.

It is quite possible for you who are shy to develop social poise and confidence; for you who are a bit too arrogant to learn that a measure of humility is both more effective and more attractive; for you who bristle at the slightest imposition of authority to discover that freedom is really the opportunity for self-discipline.

These are but a few illustrations of the potential for change which is within you. Thus any of your dreams that are realized will be achieved because of your own efforts.

I am certain that the members of the Class of 1968 will do their share in assuring the community that they recognize and adopt the conviction that makes life worth living.

"MARY, MARY"

"Mary, Mary," quite contrary to preceding plays, how did your performance go? With an air of professionalism, this year's class play was superbly directed by Miss Cohee. Its originality proved quite a success as the cast seemingly performed this adult comedy without error.

Those lengthy passionate kisses, supported by that arid humor, and guided by a bit of censorship, helped make the senior class play of 1968 a hit long to be remembered in the annals of East Bridgewater High School.

JUNIOR PROM

Thru flowered passageways we entered into an "Endless Summer"—a world of sunshine and surf. Hovered above our heads the suspended mobile symbolized the supreme effort put forth by our class to make this prom a success. That night has long past but in our hearts the Junior Prom will remain forever.

FOOTBALL

A spirit was born at E.B.H.S. No one knows how or why, only that a handful of boys were developed into one of our best teams ever.

These boys were all very different, none of them being really physically outstanding. But with the help and determination of Coach Paul Urban and his staff, they were molded into one team we can never forget—one team which brought an overpowering, unforgettable spirit to E.B.H.S. The ultimate goal of victory was reached, something almost rare in recent years of Viking football.

Here are only some memories of the making of a spirit that will be carried on for years to come at E.B.H.S.

CROSS COUNTRY

A cloud of dust, a mighty groan, a gust of wind and they're off. The exuberant cross country team proudly wore the blue and gold Viking uniform and exemplified the true Viking Spirit with their victorious season.

This year proved to be a disappointing one. The disappointment was the fact that only four of the 11 veterans returned this year. If even seven had returned, the championship trophy would have been ours. But the team's record had to depend largely on seven Freshmen who surprisingly put on a strong performance.

It seems that with all the problems, disappointments, and tough competition this team had to endure, losses would far exceed the victories. Fortunately that was not the case, as the Cross-Country team, guided by Coach Dow and led by Co-Captains, John Carter and Craig Mott, rolled on to another victorious season.

BASKETBALL

1968—This was the year of the "Big V". Who will ever forget the fabulous E.B.H.S. Basketball Vikings—a team that entered the Tech Tourney with a 21-1 record? Who will ever forget the team that romped through league play to win the Eastern Division easily, then beat Duxbury in the South Shore Tournament semifinals to play Westies for the league championship. Who will ever forget THE win? E.B.H.S.—South Shore League Champs!

No, no one will forget. We'll always remember the great play of the Seniors. Greatly aided by Junior, Ed Pittsley, the Seniors bore the brunt. Mike Ring . . . Gerry Alden . . . Dave Wood . . . all-league guard Billy Harden. And most of all, Mr. Everything, Jimmy Moxley. All-league, all-Scholastic, all-state, all-records breaker, and Viking Captain, Jimmy averaged 35 points a game in his Senior year and led in all departments of the game. The '68 Torch salutes the great Viking team. And the '68 Torch salutes the greatest of the greats—Captain Jim Moxley and Coach Joe Morey.

BASEBALL

Whether or not it is cited as one of East Bridgewaters' more popular spectator sports—baseball deserves as much recognition as the various other school sports. Shown here on these pages are some of E.B. High's players who worked hard to have a great season and bring some deserved recognition to this high school game of baseball, our national sport.

FIELD HOCKEY

Field Hockey—a sport that demands endurance, enthusiasm, and coordination.

For the girls, field hockey is a challenge. The sense of achievement they derive from this sport is in the individual reward of being a necessary part of the team.

True Viking spirit is shown always by the players, win or lose.

Determination is the word that describes the girls' basketball team—the determination to improve, to play their best, to win.

Ably guided by Mrs. Lovering and Miss Kraemer, the girls too have demonstrated the spirit of the Vikings!

CHEERLEADERS

The "68" Cheerleaders represented the core of our Viking success—unbounded spirit. Through the pouring rain and mud of Thanksgiving Day and the excitement of basketball season, they urged our teams on to victory.

Enthusiasm, pep, and the firm belief that the Vikings would always be number one made our team what it is. We will remember with pride our cheerleaders.

TORCH

"Torch", that word has encompassed so many things this year—responsibility, originality, hard-work, determination, time, will power, co-operation—just to mention a few of the many things needed to turn out a Torch our Torch . . . The 1968 Torch.

It hasn't all been fun and games, although we've had our good moments. There were also those of disappointment and discouragement, but we've weathered all situations and experiences to produce a book that we hope will be a tribute to the Class of "68" and in years to come will make us think of those "four—not so bad years" at E.B.H.S.

Mr. Kjellerstedt has been a great advisor, to say the very least. Throughout the year he has added hope, inspiration, help, and most of all—laughter to the Torch Room. For a room with four gray walls and practically no light, he kept it gay and happy. He truly is the "Lighter of the Torch" and for this we thank him very, very much.

A. W. K.—"The Lighter of the Torch"

The E.B.H.S. Band has enjoyed a very valuable and rewarding year. The Band has improved musically, and many of our talented musicians have excelled state wide. It has taken part in many rallies, concerts, and parades throuhgout the year, to the enjoyment of all. All this has taken place under the supervision of our conductor, Mr. Schuller, who has given up much of his time to help us. We are justifiably proud of our band and our director.

STUDENT COUNCIL

This year's Student Council has been the host of many activities. In November they were the host Council for the Fall Convention of the South Eastern Massachusetts Association of Student Councils' Convention. During the school's Basketball season, they led a spirit drive for the signs to decorate the gym.

Throughout the school year other activities have been initiated, such as Student Council Week, the decorating of the cafeteria for Parents' Week, the installation of a coke machine, for the benefit of the student body, a canned goods drive, for the needy families of East Bridgewater, and various assemblies for the interest of all.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The candles representing Knowledge—Character—Scholarship—and Service—are the foundation of the National Honor Society. The flame and spark given off by these candles create a kind of spirit which is the basis of E.B.H.S. A spirit which none can surpass or extinguish.

Under the careful guidance of Miss Van Zandt, Mr. Rowell, and Miss Cohee, the Honor Society has undertaken many new and interesting projects, in hopes that through the efforts of the group, E.B.H.S. will benefit.

DRAMA CLUB

The Masque Players, E. B. High's new drama club, has quickly become one of the most popular and active organizations in the school. Under the direction of Miss Deborah Cohee, students were given the opportunity to experience the world of the theater. This year's club has taken field trips to different hospitals and the girls have seen what it is like to be a nurse, as well as the various training programs and the other health fields that they might choose to enter. Also, the club had an Easter Party for the children at Lakeville Hospital, and throughout the year held fund raising projects in order to give their annual scholarship.
